I. Outstanding Summary Judgment Motions

There are eight outstanding summary judgment motions, all of which were filed on November 7, 2014. The following tables list these motions in the following subject-matter categories:

- Summary Judgment Motions Related to the Foreign Trade Antitrust Improvement Act (FTAIA) (two motions);
- Summary Judgment Motions Related to Absence of Evidence of Liability as to Specific Defendant Entities (six motions).

1 Parties who are no longer interested in a motion as a result of settlement are denoted by
2 strikethrough text.

3 II. Outstanding Motions to Exclude Certain Expert Testimony

4 There are four outstanding motions to exclude certain expert testimony, as listed in the 5 tables that follow. All four of these motions were filed on December 5, 2014. Motions on which
6 a party seeks oral argument are denoted by an asterisk. Parties who are no longer interested in a
7 motion as a result of settlement are denoted by strikethrough text.

8 III. Outstanding Motions In Limine

9 Apart from the motions to exclude certain expert testimony, there are thirty-six outstanding
10 motions in limine. These motions are relevant to the N.D. Cal. trials exclusively. These motions
11 were filed on February 13, 2015. The following tables list these motions by moving parties,
12 dividing them into the following categories:

- 13 1. DAPs' omnibus motions (fifteen motions);
- 14 2. Joint Defendants' motions (fifteen motions);
- 15 3. Sharp's individual motion (one motion); and
- 16 4. Individual Defendants' motions (five motions).

17 Motions on which a party seeks oral argument are denoted by an asterisk. Parties who are no
18 longer interested in a motion as a result of settlement are denoted by strikethrough text.
